

Project base in UAE:
www.midwestoilgas.com
jobs@midwestoilgas.com

Feb 26, 2010

Midwest is requiring an experienced SHEQ Advisor to work in UAE/ Abu Dhabi. The role requires offshore and shipyard visits as and when required. Accountabilities:

- Provide safety, health, environment and quality support to meet organizational needs.
- Execute individual goals and objectives within the SHE&Q annual department work plan
- Support the organization to achieve the SHE&Q objectives
- Champion the development and maintenance of the safety, health and environmentally aware culture within the organization
- Contribute to the development and maintenance of loss control systems, with respect to identified hazards that present risk to persons, assets and the environment

Key Roles:

- Execute Individual goals and objectives within the SHE&Q annual department work plan
- Execute and report internal and external audits in accordance with the audit schedule
- Implement the document file code procedure
- Support the organization to achieve the SHEQ objectives
- Provide accurate, timely and effective business improvement advise to operational staff
- Provide relevant operation feedback to departmental and rig managers
- Attend operational meetings as required
- Collate and distribute rig and Unit SHE&Q performance statistics
- Champion the development and maintenance of the safety, health and environmentally aware culture within the organization
- Provide effective SHE&Q coaching to operational staff
- Present SHEQ Induction for new employees
- Contribute to investigation and the analysis of the root causes of incidents
- Maintain and provide incident investigation information
- Contribute to the development and maintenance of loss control systems, with respect identified hazards that present risk to persons, assets and the environment.
- Develop and maintain good working relationships with regulatory authorities
- Disseminate reports accept responses and develop action plans to improve safety.

Requirements:

- Preferably with operational experience of (incident management system).
- Must have offshore, heavy industry operational experience and preferably be a ISO 9001 lead auditor and have ISO 14001 (environment) and ISO 18001 (safety management) experience.
- Must have a working knowledge of offshore legislation.